ONTARIO DEVELOPMENT SKI TEAM TRAINING

ODST Landgraaf Training Camp Recap

The Ontario Development Ski Team wrapped up a productive training block in Landgraaf in late September, where both the men's and women's groups focused heavily on slalom fundamentals. Despite challenging indoor conditions, athletes made strong technical gains through repetition and attention to detail — truly embracing the theme of “doing the basics well.”

The camp provided an excellent environment for experiential learning, with athletes refining movement patterns, testing new approaches, and building confidence on short, high-quality lanes. The progress made over the week set a strong technical foundation heading the fall prep period, the team left Landgraaf energized and motivated for the season ahead. - ODST Head Coach Henry Yeigh

And the countdown is on to
Path to the Podium 2025

We hope you will join us on Saturday, November 22 at the Georgian Peaks Ski Club.

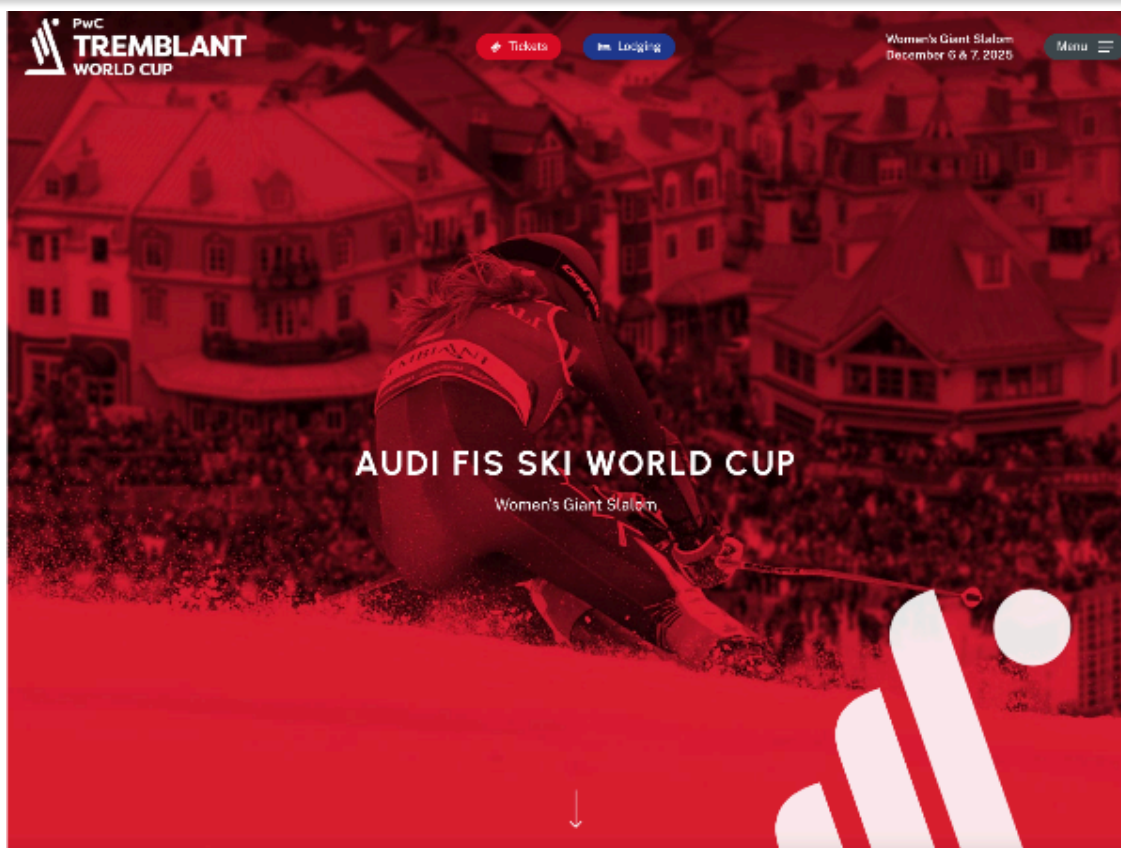

As we kick off this Olympic winter, a priority of Path to the Podium is to ensure the Canadian athlete development pathway remains robust, giving our athletes the confidence to compete with the world.

Ali Nullmeyer will be challenging at the highest levels in slalom. She knows the importance of support throughout the journey to the World Cup. Canadian Team alumni Jeff MacInnis caught up with Ali before she left for Europe and her final training period, asking her to share her insights about how important it is for every athlete to be supported by their club and Alpine Ontario:

100% of proceeds - ticket sales and donations, go to support our athletes. Our Panel, hosted by Rod Black and featuring the 1st gathering of Canada's four Hahnenkamm winners, will make it a memorable evening.

If you are unable to join us, a donation to support our athletes and Alpine Ontario, to ensure our development pathway is thriving, would be deeply appreciated.
